Suicide First Aid

Our Trainers

Our certified ASIST Trainers are Mr Desmurn Lim, Mr Frederick Low, Mr Alvin Chua, Ms Agnes Chia, Ms Zeng Hui Hui, Ms Cheng Hwee Fern, Ms Sophie Cheng, Ms Lee Ming Li, & Ms Joanna Tan. The trainers have vast experience and knowledge in suicide intervention and have worked with different clientele in the social service, hospital and special education sectors. They are also experienced trainers in counselling, psychology and other areas in the social service and healthcare sectors.

Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training (ASIST) is an internationally recognised training. ASIST was founded by LivingWorks Education Inc. in Calgary, Canada. To-date, ASIST is the most widely used, acclaimed and researched suicide intervention skills training in the world.

This 2-day workshop will enable social workers and related professionals to assist persons at risk of suicide by using an effective suicide interventional model so that they will stay safe and seek further help. The training will be conducted through lectures, structured group discussions, case studies, role-plays and video discussions. Set in an interactive and practice-oriented learning environment, participants will acquire the essential and pivotal skills to intervene and prevent the immediate risk of suicide.

Upon completion of the course, participants will be able to:

- Increase awareness of their own attitude towards suicide and its impact on the intervention process
- Gain knowledge, skills and confidence to deal with persons at risk of suicide to help them stay safe and seek further help

Who should attend

The workshop is designed for all individuals in organisations who are Social workers, medical social workers, psychologists, counsellors, allied health professionals, educators and social service practitioners.
