

Ms Jean Koh

Jean Koh was conferred the Promising Social Worker Award by President Tony Tan in 2012. She is currently the Assistant Director of Care Corner Family Service Centre (Woodlands), overseeing the service planning, development and implementation of the agency, supervision of staff and teams as well as undertakes organizational roles via leading organizational work groups and committees. She holds an Honours and a Master's degree in Social Work from the National University of Singapore. She started her career in the social services in 2005 working with at-risk youths and their families in schools and in the community. She reviewed and redesigned various community programmes to posit a strong empowerment and community support intervention approach. Having a strong interest in leadership and organizational development, she implemented various learning platforms for in-house training and development as well as dedicating her time in coaching and mentoring staff.